

A Reckoning

Holding Perpetrators Accountable in Sri Lanka

August 9th: 9AM PST/12PM EST

Panel

Dr. Nimmi Gowrinathan, activist, writer, and scholar, is the founder of the Politics of Sexual Violence Initiative at the City College of New York.

Anuradha Mittal, Executive Director of the Oakland Institute, is the author of several reports on Sri Lanka.

Dr. Kate Cronin-Furman, Associate Professor of Human Rights at University College London, has been a human rights lawyer in New York, Cambodia, and The Hague.

Anushani Alagarajah, Co-Director of Adayaalam, works on public policy issues affecting the Tamil polity in Sri Lanka.

PSVI

Zoom Webinar co-sponsored by Politics of Sexual Violence Initiative at the City College of New York
& The Oakland Institute

OAKLAND
INSTITUTE